

Apply to be a Ceramic Arts Teacher

Clay Art Center located in Port Chester, NY is seeking ceramic teaching artists to join our roster of teaching artists for offsite afterschool programs.

Our offsite programs take place in schools, recreation centers, and other community organizations working primarily with elementary school students. Teachers lead students in handbuilding and glazing projects.

This is an independent contractor position. Teachers may be asked to teach 1-3 classes in locations in Westchester and Fairfield counties per session depending on our needs. Afterschool classes typically run from 3-4pm (not including travel or prep time).

Teaching pay rate starts at $70 per hour for offsite programs and varies based on program type, location, and class size. Teachers must have their own transportation.

No teaching experience required; training will be provided. Must have familiarity with ceramics and a desire to engage youth through clay.

A core part of Clay Art Center's mission is to ignite passion for ceramics, and to help foster creativity. Our incredible faculty helps artists of all ages and levels develop and hone their skills.

Clay Art Center is a nationally recognized non-profit center for the advancement and practice of the ceramic arts. Believing strongly that the arts have the ability to touch and enrich lives, the CAC's mission is to offer a stimulating space for studio practice, exhibition and educational opportunities to better serve the community." Read more at www.clayartcenter.org.

To Apply: Please submit a resume and a cover letter detailing your ceramics and teaching experience. Email information as one pdf to Emily Peck at emily@clayartcenter.org

Clay Art Center is a nationally recognized non-profit center for the advancement and practice of the ceramic arts. Believing strongly that the arts have the ability to touch and enrich lives, the CAC's mission is to offer a stimulating space for studio practice, exhibition and educational opportunities to better serve the community." Read more at www.clayartcenter.org.

40 Beech Street, Port Chester, NY 10573
www.clayartcenter.org