

ARTS & ENTERTAINMENT

Selling Bowls to End Hunger

The Clay Art Center sold ceramic bowls made by more than 50 of its artists and students at Rye Presbyterian Church on Sunday to raise money to fight hunger in our area.

Proceeds are to be donated to Don Bosco Community Center to help families in need in Port Chester. The Clay Art Center has been holding the bowl sale for more than 20 years.

